

Ironworks Estates Property and Lot owners are required to mow their grass at least three times during the growing season.

When lot owners do not take care of their property. Neighbors can call 502-863-9802 Scott County Building Inspection Enforcement Dept. They take care of city and County lots (if inside a subdivision). An associated from the building inspection department will drive by the lots and will make an assessment. The delinquent property owner will be contacted and giving 10 days to mow their grass. If the lot owner does not comply and get the grass mowed, someone will come out from the county and cut the grass. The Lot owner will be billed and or alien attached to the property.

As of 9-2009

Scott County Building Inspection Enforcement previously addressed this issue; however County budget cuts have temporarily halted their efforts.
